Platanes or, otherwise called, Platanias is a beach which stretches from the Town of Rethymno in an easterly direction 5 to 6 kilometers away from the City of Rethymno. There are also several local buses that run frequently in case you want to travel to the rest of the island of Crete. It is a blue flag beach which means that the beach water has been tested and is very clean and clear. The loggerhead sea turtle lays its eggs here, on the beachfront. The turtles are protected by the Greek State. Most of the nests – more than 400 every year – are found on Rethymno Bay, which hosts the third largest breeding population of loggerhead sea turtle in Greece.

It is a coastal beach which attracts many tourists, as there are many hotels, apartments, supermarkets, travel agencies, pharmacy, bakeries, clothing shops, jewellery, fur shops and car rental companies. The night life on the island is vibrant as there are bars, coffee shops and tavernas which are open until the early morning hours. The location is ideal, as it is both close to the beach and all amenities. You will also have easy access to the rest of the island of Crete.

Platanes

In 1866, one of the major revolts in Cretan history against the Ottoman occupation broke out. 943 Greeks, the majority of which were women and children, sought refuge in the monastery which was besieged by the Turks. On 8 November 1866, when, after three days of battle, surrender was unavoidable Kostis Yamboudakis caused an explosion of the powder magazine of the monastery. All mutineers and civilians who had been kept there were buried inside, along with the besiegers. Thus the monastery of Arkadi became an eternal symbol for freedom and the 8th of November henceforth the day of commemorating the Cretan resistance.

A valuable collection of ecclesiastical and historical relics is on exhibition today in the Monastery Museum. In their majority they are dated before the destruction of 1866. Among them are portable post-Byzantine icons, manuscripts and ecclesiastical vestments, as well as weapons and the banner of the revolutionary period.

GOLDEN VISA

The Greek Golden Visa program is one of the most attractive and less costly in the European Union. This program was introduced by the Greek state in their movement in and out of Greece.

When you purchase a property (new or resale) of minimum net price 250.000 euro, you can benefit in many ways but most importantly you can acquire a residence permit in Greece, valid for all European Union and all Schengen countries for you and your family members in first line.

The duration of the residence permit is five years and can be renewed for an equal period of time each time as long as you are still an owner of a property in Greece.

This process is simplified and the state fee is significantly low.

Our experienced and professional legal team can guide you through the process and assure the validity and importance of your purchase in order to maximize its advantages.

PROPERTY BUYING IN GREECE

Buying property in Greece can be different from many other European countries, but certainly not difficult. Our personal service includes guiding you through the whole purchasing process and beyond.

The simplest way to buy property as a 'Non-Resident' in Greece is through 'Power of Attorney'. As all buyers are required by law to have legal representation when purchasing real estate, you will need to retain a lawyer whether you choose to use the Power of Attorney process or not. If you don't already have a lawyer we can assist you in finding one.

We recommend that you choose the Power of Attorney option as it allows the whole purchase process to be completed quickly and simply in your absence. Your lawyer will be able to open a Greek bank account in your name, obtain the obligatory tax number (AFM), make payments on your behalf and deal quickly and efficiently with any paper work pertaining to the purchase of your home.

If you would like to have further information regarding the benefits and procedures in obtaining a Power of Attorney please do not hesitate to contact us.
