ABOUT THE AREA

The building is conveniently situated near Omonia Square and the National Archaeological Museum.

Omonia has served as a pivotal hub in the city's layout since the initial plans for modern Greece were drawn up in the 19th century.

The redesigned square, revealed in May 2020, features a stunning fountain with 188 jets and 177 underwater lights, all crafted from eco-friendly materials and innovative cool pavement technologies.

The square forms one corner of the triangle that constitutes the city center, connecting Athinas, Stadiou, Panepistimiou, 3is Septemvriou, and Agiou Konstantinou Streets.

Interestingly, city planners once envisioned the royal palace being built on this prime location.

The name Omonia, meaning harmony in Greek, symbolizes the informal political truce established here in 1862 by leaders of opposing political factions following the removal of King Otto.

About the Area

The renovation of the ex-Minion building, located on the same street, is approaching its final stages, marking a significant milestone in the revitalization of the area. This impressive structure, which spans an expansive 18,580sqm, is undergoing a comprehensive transformation into a state-of-the-art bioclimatic mixed-use facility.

The design of the new facility emphasizes sustainability and environmental consciousness, integrating bioclimatic principles that optimize energy efficiency and reduce the building's ecological footprint. This innovative approach not only enhances the aesthetic appeal of the building but also contributes positively to the urban landscape.

Once completed, the facility will host a diverse array of amenities, including vibrant food and beverage establishments that will cater to both residents and visitors, creating a lively social atmosphere.

Additionally, the building will feature modern residential apartments, providing much-needed housing options in the city center.

Retail outlets will offer a variety of shopping experiences, while dedicated office spaces will support local businesses and entrepreneurs, fostering economic growth in the area.

This multifaceted development is poised to breathe new life into the city center, attracting foot traffic and encouraging community engagement.

The combination of residential, commercial, and recreational spaces will create a dynamic environment that meets the needs of a diverse population.

In the following slide, we will showcase some captivating images of the newly renovated building, highlighting its architectural features and the exciting changes that are set to enhance the urban experience for all.
